

Guild Lodge

Guild Lodge is a secure mental health service in Preston and part of Lancashire & South Cumbria NHS Foundation Trust. Simon Wess is an artist and arts practitioner in mental health who delivers art sessions for service users as part of the occupational therapy programme. During these sessions, service users complete a range of group and personal projects which forms a part of their care plan to aid their recovery from mental illness. This display of art work was selected for the Harris Open 2021 and showcases a broad range of talent and artistic ability through creative processes, methods and platforms.

Sales

All works priced at £30

Works from top line left to right

Egyptian, acrylic and oil on wood panel, 2020 by EB

Observations, acrylic on wood board, 2020 by MW

Abstract, acrylic on cardboard, 2020 by KS

Cathedral, acrylic and pen on card, 2020 by KS

Fishermen, acrylic and watercolour on paper, 2020 by MW